.... " We have not had a Waterloo, much less a Sedan. Neither seems on October 21, even remotely possible, in the present operation. What we have had is a military decision of the war. That decision was had in the Battle of the Hindenburg Line "....

F. H. SIMONDS.

Taken from Nov. 1918.

.... " The smashing of the great defensive system erected by the enemy in the West, and claimed by him to be impregnable, is a feat of which we are justly proud and for which the Empire will be ever grateful ".

LLOYD GEORGE.

Taken from letter to
Sir D. Haig, 9 October 18.
